

Inclusiveness Test, December | 2021

Name _____ ID _____

Time allowed

25'

I. True or False Items

Instruction: Write A if the statement is correct and B if the statement is incorrect on the space provided (1 Point each).

1. _____ The best theoretical model is biopsychosocial model of disability.
2. _____ Women with disability are the most vulnerable than any other groups.
3. _____ In terms of the definition of basic terms, a person with impairment means disabled.
4. _____ Conceiving baby at older age may cause of disability.
5. _____ A person with a disability is handicapped.

II. Matching (1 mark each)

Instruction: Match under column, "A" descriptions about the thinking of people towards persons with disability across models of disability are provided, and under column "B" the names of the models of disability are given.

A	B
6. _____ Barriers of attitude, environment and organization are seen as a disabling factor.	A. The medical model
7. _____ Persons with disability are seen as a shame on family.	B. The social model
8. _____ Views disability as a socially created problem	C. The traditional model
9. _____ Views disability as a feature of the person
10. _____ Requires reorganizing teaching, learning and assessment.
11. _____ Believed that intervention should be made to 'correct' the problem within the individual.

III. Multiple Choice

Choose the best answers from the given alternatives on the space provided (1 Pt)

12. _____ Referring to Q 8, David's inability to walk to do the daily activities such as walking to school, eating properly, and etc. But, if he learns to use a walker, with braces, his level of disability will improve considerably. This is best termed as
 A. Impairment B. Disability C. Vulnerability D. Handicap

Cindy is an 8-year-old who has extreme difficulty with reading (severe dyslexia). She has good vision and hearing and scores well on tests of intelligence. Her condition will become more challenging as she gets older on account of failing to get an effective approach to improve her reading or to teach her to compensate to her reading difficulties. This term is most probably associated with

- A. Impairment B. Disability C. Vulnerability D. Handicap

14. Which of the following criteria can be used to define intellectual disabilities?
- A) Significantly below average intellectual functioning
 - B) Impairments in adaptive functioning generally
 - C) These deficits should be manifest before the age of 18-years
 - D) All the above

15.

David is a 4-yr.-old who has a form of cerebral palsy (CP) and causes his legs to be stiff, tight, and difficult to move. This term is most probably related with

- A. Impairment B. Disability C. Vulnerability D. Handicap

16. Person with low vision means

- A) severely impaired vision.
- B) is not correctable with eyeglasses
- C) impairment of visual functioning even after standard refractive correction
- D) total or partial inability to see

17. Which one of the following the best meaning of vulnerability

- A) At risk of being harmed
- B) labeling as a different
- C) Discriminated against
- D) Stigmatizing

18. Which one of the following group of persons are less vulnerable?

- A) Women
- B) Aged people
- C) Gifted and talented children
- D) typical developing children

19. The sign of mood of unhappiness and depression student would be associated with

- A) Specific learning disabilities
- B) Emotional and behavioral disorder
- C) Intellectual disabilities
- D) Speech and language disorder

20. Errors in the production of speech sounds that may be related to

- A. Reading disorder
- B. Fluency disorder
- C. Articulation disorder
- D. Voice disorder